Collect

Generous God,
you give us gifts and make them grow:
though our faith is small as mustard seed,
make it grow to your glory
and the flourishing of your kingdom;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Post Communion Prayer

Lord God,
whose Son is the true vine and the source of life,
ever giving himself that the world may live:
may we so receive within ourselves
the power of his death and passion
that, in his saving cup,
we may share his glory and be made perfect in his love;
for he is alive and reigns, now and for ever. Amen

ARCHDEACON'S VISITATION

This year's swearing in of churchwardens has been taking place over the last couple of months. Some have been face to face meetings and some via Zoom.

Tuesday 20th July is the date chosen by Carole and me,

and also the 2 churchwardens from Scholes, Ann and Peter.

Our meeting is by Zoom.

Please keep the 4 of us in your prayers.

At present, Thorner do not have any churchwardens.

Below I have copied the duties of churchwardens, which is printed on the back of the declaration we have to sign.

CANONS OF THE CHURCH OF ENGLAND

CANON E1 – OF CHURCHWARDENS

1The churchwardens of parishes and districts shall be chosen in accordance with the Churchwardens Measure 2001, and any other Measure, Act, or scheme affecting churchwardens.

2 (a) At a time and place to be appointed by the bishop annually, being on a date not later than 31st July in each year, each person chosen for the office of churchwarden shall appear before the bishop, or his substitute duly appointed, and be admitted to the office of churchwarden after:-

i) making a declaration in the presence of the bishop or his substitute, that he will faithfully and diligently perform the duties of his office; and
ii) subscribing a declaration to that effect and also that he is not disqualified under section 2(1), (2) or (3) of the Churchwardens Measure 2001. (

b) In relation to a filling of a casual vacancy the reference in paragraph (a) above to the 31st July shall be construed as a reference to a date three months after the person who is to fill the vacancy is chosen or the date of the next annual meeting of the parishioners to elect churchwardens, whichever is the earlier.

3. Subject to any provision of any Measure, Act, or scheme relating to the resignation or vacation of their office, the churchwardens so chosen and admitted shall continue in their office until they, or others as their successors, be admitted in like manner by the bishop or his substitute duly appointed, or if no such person is so admitted by 31st July in the year in question, until that date.

4. The churchwardens when admitted are officers of the bishop. They shall discharge such duties as are by law and custom assigned to them; they shall be foremost in representing the laity and in co-operating with the incumbent; they shall use their best endeavours by example and precept to encourage the parishioners in the practice of true religion and to promote unity and peace among them. They shall also maintain order and decency in the church and churchyard, especially during the time of divine service.

5. In the churchwardens is vested the property in the plate, ornaments, and other movable goods of the church, and they shall keep an inventory thereof which they shall revise from time to time as occasion may require. On going out of office they shall duly deliver to their successors any goods of the church remaining in their hands together with the said inventory, which shall be checked by their successors.

6. In this Canon "bishop" means the bishop of the diocese concerned.

PCC meeting

There will be a scheduled PCC meeting on Monday 19th July at 7pm via Zoom.
Remember, the link is on the back of the agenda.
The last one with Andy.
