

HELP NEEDED

Thank you to everyone to puts their name on one of our many rotas, your volunteering is very much appreciated. And thank you to the angels who regularly do one of the tasks for which there is no rota.

This week the tea/coffee rota is the focus. Last year over 50% of the slots were filled by just 2 people, they did not hog the rota but filled in on days where no one was down. Take a look - is there a day you could volunteer?

We have be invited to join with the Methodists; they will provide soup and we will provide pudding of fruit, small cakes and muffins.

To help the caterers, please would you let Leslye know if you will be eating lunch with us.
Volunteers needed to provide the fruit/small cakes/muffins
There is a sign up sheet in church.

The theme for the 2025 Week of Prayer for Christian Unity is "You shall love the Lord your God... and your neighbour as yourself" (Luke 10:27)

FOOD BANK

At St. Richard's Church Seacroft.

Thank you to everyone who donated to the food bank in 2024 and gave the extras asked for over the Christmas period.

It really made a big difference to so many families.

And we need to continue into 2025.

Tinned fish, meat, beans, soup, vegetables and fruit.

Long life milk and coffee.

Packets of cereal and biscuits.

Jars of pasta sauce, curry sauce,
brown sauce, ketchup.

Soap, toothpaste, shower gel, shampoo,
deodorant, feminine hygiene products,
nappies (large sizes).

Donations can be brought to church,
or left in the big black box half way down

Carole's drive, 34 Main Street.

Strong supermarket plastic bags are always needed
at the food bank.

Thank you.
